

AECL and the Federal Court outcome

Publication: 10 February 2016
Categories: Media Releases

The Australian Egg Corporation Limited (AECL) acknowledges the judgment in favour of AECL by the Federal Court in this civil matter brought by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) alleging AECL and others had attempted to induce a cartel.

As a not-for-profit entity, our priority now is to continue devoting 100% of our energies to our important work of providing marketing and Research & Development (R&D) services that help Australia's egg industry to grow while continually meeting our statutory commitments to the Australian Government.

For media enquiries, please contact:
Kai Ianssen, AECL Communications Manager, on (02) 9409 6909 or kai@aecl.org.