

What are organic eggs?

Categories:

Farming

Organic eggs come from hens that are free to roam in an outdoor area during the day and are housed safely and securely in sheds at night. The main difference between organic and free range is organic eggs are produced without the use of any chemicals.

What are organic eggs?