

What is egg farming?

Categories:

Farming

Egg farming is the process of raising hens to produce eggs for human consumption. Australian egg farmers produce 16.9 million eggs every day to feed the nation, which is 6.2 billion eggs each year. To meet this huge demand, egg farmers across the country look after a combined total of about 20 million hens.

Whats is egg farming?