"Christmas trifles just got a fresh new look. In this recipe, I'm going tiramisu with a twist – no coffee or alcohol, so it's kid friendly. Making the sponge fingers just makes it that extra bit special with all that fresh fruit and the mascarpone white chocolate cream... YUMMY! CAUTION: this is extra addictive!" - Anna Polyviou

Ingredients JELLY

2 x 85g packets raspberry jelly crystals

SPONGE FINGERS

5 eggs, whites and yolks separated 150g caster sugar 1 tsp vanilla bean paste 130g plain flour, sifted 50g icing sugar

RASPBERRY DIPPING SYRUP

150g caster sugar150g water1 punnet raspberries

VANILLA WHITE CHOCOLATE MASCARPONE CREAM

225ml milk 1 vanilla pod, seeds scraped 5 egg yolks 110g caster sugar 300g white chocolate, chopped 375g mascarpone 450ml pure cream

MERINGUE KISSES

3 egg whites 100g caster (superfine) sugar 50g pure icing (confectioners') sugar, sifted

TO DECORATE

6 punnets strawberries, halved 3 punnets raspberries, halved ¼ bunch fresh basil, leaves picked

Method

- 1. Prepare jelly according to packet instructions. Pour into the base of a large trifle dish and place in the fridge to set overnight.
- 2. For the sponge fingers, preheat the oven to 190°C and line 2 large baking trays with baking paper. Place egg whites, 100g caster sugar and vanilla in the bowl of an electric mixer fitted with the whisk attachment. Whisk until semi-firm, then gently fold through sifted flour.
- 3. Place egg yolks and remaining 50g caster sugar in the clean bowl of an electric mixer fitted with the whisk attachment. Whisk until pale and fluffy, then fold into the egg white and flour mixture.
- 4. Transfer mixture into a piping bag with a plain 13mm nozzle. Pipe 10cm long fingers onto the prepared trays, then sift over the icing sugar to cover. Bake in the oven for 7-8 minutes, then transfer to a wire rack to cool. Set aside.

- 1. For the raspberry dipping syrup, place sugar and water in a small saucepan and bring to the boil. Once boiling, transfer to a blender with the raspberries and blend until smooth. Pass mixture through a fine sieve into a bowl and set aside to cool completely.
- 2. For the vanilla white chocolate mascarpone cream, place milk and vanilla pod and seeds into a saucepan and bring to the boil. Meanwhile, whisk egg yolks and caster sugar together in a medium bowl. Once the milk mixture has boiled, pour half into egg mixture and whisk well. Pour the egg mixture back into the saucepan with remaining milk and cook out until it thickens and reaches 83°C on a sugar thermometer. Pour mixture over the white chocolate and stir. Set aside until chocolate has melted.
- 3. In a separate bowl, whisk together mascarpone and cream until semi-whipped. Add a little of the cream mixture to the white chocolate mixture to loosen, then add the remaining cream mixture and whisk, by hand, until combined. Set aside.
- 4. For the meringue kisses, preheat the oven to 74°C (165°F) and line a baking tray with baking paper. Place egg whites in the clean, dry bowl of an electric mixer fitted with the whisk attachment and whisk on high until soft peaks form. Reduce mixer speed and gradually add the caster sugar. Return the mixer to high and whisk until the meringue is thick and glossy and the sugar has dissolved. Rub a little meringue between your fingers; if it feels gritty, continue to whisk. Firm peaks need to be achieved. This should take about 5 minutes. Remove the bowl from the mixer and quickly fold in the icing sugar, or the meringue will become runny.
- 5. Transfer mixture into a piping bag with a size 9 plain nozzle. Pipe the meringue onto the prepared trays and bake for 2 hours 30 minutes or until dried out. Keep checking to make sure the temperature isn't too high as no colour is wanted. Remove from the oven and allow to cool on the trays, then store in an airtight container until required. They will keep for 1–2 weeks.
- 6. When you're ready to assemble, remove the trifle dish with jelly from the fridge. Spoon half of the vanilla white chocolate mascarpone cream over the jelly. Dip sponge fingers into raspberry dipping syrup, keeping 8 fingers undipped. Place fingers onto a wire rack for excess dipping liquid to drip off. Arrange dipped biscuits over the mascarpone cream, then top with 2 punnets of halved strawberries, and 2 punnets of raspberries. Top with remaining mascarpone cream, remaining berries and halved undipped sponge fingers (dust these in icing sugar, first). Finish with basil leaves and meringue kisses.
